TAKES SPECULATION STAKES IN A DRIVE FROM JUDGE HIMES. Roseban, With 187 Pounds, Romps Home -Rose of Dawn Gallops Off With

Handloap for Mares-Only the Regulars Attend the Gravesend Races. With the rain falling all the afternoon and the track a sea of sloppy mud, seven races were run at the Gravesend track yesterday in the presence of 10,000 regulars. of these conditions, however, three favorites all heavily backed and three other winners that were well played made the outing one of satisfaction to the crowd.

Soratches were numerous, there being nine withdrawals from the Speculation Stakes for three-year-olds and upward, one mile and a sixteenth. As far as the betting was concerned, M. L. Hayman's Right Royal and C. R. Ellison's Judge Himes practically mo-nopolized the play. The former was pounded down to even money favorite, while the latter went up half a point to 7 to 2. Right Royal did not get off any too well, Perrine being compelled to keep him on the outside in a long game rush up the back stretch, with Ocean Tide, 10 to 1, and Judge Himes racing in front neck and neck. At the head of the stretch Perrine went to the whip. Ocean Tide had dropped back and Judge Himes, also under the lash, was making a bold bid for victory. Fifty yards from the wire it looked as if Right Royal was beaten, but he came again with great courage and won on three lengths away. Roseben, with 137 pounds on his back, was the choice in the handicap for all ages, about six furlongs, although he went up to 9 to 5 be-cause of the play on Nannie Hodge and Schulamite. Under this burden the great sprinter had to wait nearly five minutes at the post before the barrier went up, but in spite of a slow track he soon raced his rivals to earth and won in a big gallop by a length and a half in 1:11 1-5. Schulamite nailed the place from Nannie Hodge by half a length, with the post by a nose in 1:49. Ocean Tide was

Jake Sanders a head back.

Confederate, 6 to 1, was much the best in the opening event for two-year-olds, about. six furlongs, for when Hilderbrand cut him loose he romped away from Frank Farrell's Arklirta, 8 to 1, who led to the stretch turn and was beten by three lengths. Deviltree, 5 to 1, was a length and a half behind, while Yalagal, the favorite, was badly beaten. The time was 1:11 2-5.

Fred Johnson's Bonfire, 11 to 10, favorite, made all the pace in the steplechase at about two miles, but at the last jump he was ove-hauled by George B. Hill's Calcorahatchee, 4 to 1, who won in a hot finish by a couple of lengths in 4:14. Bonfire was six lengths in front of Black Death, 12 to 1, who ran an in-

H. B. Duryea's Rose of Dawn, 5 to 1, with Shaw up, won the fifth event, a handicap for mares of all ages, one mile and a sixteenth, in spreadeagle style. She led from start to finish and come home four lengths in front of Don't Ask Me, 5 to 1, in 1.51 2-5. Thistle Heather, the favorite, was third, a length and

Heather, the favorite, was third, a length and a half away.

The last two races, each of which was for maiden two-year-old fillies and geldings at five and a half furlongs, were won respectively by Mrs. R. Selby's Pamela, a 20 to 1 shot, and Isaac Frank's Flavigny, 5 to 2, favorite. Pamela won in a gallop, beating T. Hitchcock, Jr.'s, Usury, one of several favorites, by half a dozen lengths, with Merry Go, Round, 5 to 1, a poor third. Flavigny won her race in a heavy drive by a scant half length from Lillie B, backed down to 10 to 1. The latter had a head over H. J. Morris's Vagabond, 4 to 1. Pamela's time was 1:09 2-5 and Flavigny's was 1:09 4-5. The summaries: FIRST RACE.

DEN FASTEST POWER BOAT.

So Says Her Owner, Who Is Willing to Back His Opinion With Cash.

BRIDGEPORT, Conn. Sept. 18 .- Joseph H. Hoadley of New York city, owner of the power boat Den, which broke down at the start of both races in the motor boat carnival on the Hudson River last week, declared today that his boat is the fastest craft affoat he stands willing to back his assertion by racing her against any other boat for any sized stake, beginning with E. R. Thomas's Dixie, which won the motor boat race last Saturday. The den is here under-going some slight changes, which Mr. Hoad-ley says will make her absolutely reliable ley says will make her absolutely reliable in the water.

"There is nothing affoat that can compare with the Den for speed," said Mr. Hoadley to-day, "and in a short time I will be ready to challenge the world with her: She was unable to take part in the races last week, because of a bad crankshaft. On Friday we ran her to Tarrytown, and she made over thirty-nine miles an hour and ran away from all of the other motor boats on the river.

Morton, English Champion Sprinter, Here. J. W. Morton, champion sprinter of England, who is on a tour of the United States, arrived in New York yesterday. He will be a guest of the New York A. C., and will do some limbering up at Travers Island until Saturd ay, and then will take part in a special 100 yard race, arranged to give him a chance to show his speed. Morton won the English 160 yard championship this year in 10 seconds and last year in exactly the same time. He had Duffey for an opponent last year, and he beat the American only by a narrowmargin. Morton won from Duffey on level terms three or four times afterward, so that his victory at the championship was no fluke.

RULING IN BAR LE DUC'S CASE.

OWNER'S ENTRIES REFUSED AND TRAINER SUSPENDED.

Gravesend Stewards Also Refer Alleged Doping Case to the Jockey Club -Gang of Roughs Meets Defeat at the Hands of the Pinkertons-Gossip.

The Gravesend stewards took action yesterday in the case of the horse Bar Le Duc, who ran in a race last Friday and was said to have been "doped." The finding of the stewards was to the effect that the entries of G. E. Hall, the owner of the horse, be re-fused and the license of the trainer, F. Williams' be suspended for the rest of the meeting. The whole case was also referred to the Jockey Club for further action, which generally means that the alleged culprits will be ruled off the turf. While the stewards did not discuss the matter beyond giving out the ruling, it is inferred that the veternary who examined Bar Le Duo in the paddock after the race discovered traces of a stimulant that had been used for the purpose of accelerating his speed

Six roughs came to the track just before the first race bent upon causing trouble. They went up in the grand stand near the betting ring while the horses were at the post, and, mingling with the crowd, started a rough house affair as soon as the horses were under way. One man was kicked in the groin, another received a heavy blow on the back of the head, while several others were knocked down. In the midst of the fraces the gang made a bold attempt to steal watches and money. Two of them were negroes, and they appeared to be the ringleaders in the riot. But in the twinkling of an eye the Pinkertons, some in street clothes and others in uniform, fel upon the toughs and fairly beat them into submission. Then they were dragged, kicking and fighting, to the gates of the track, where they were thrown headlong on to the railroad tracks. By that time the gang quit and they sneaked away resolved not to work the race track again. No valuables were lost in the fracas, which was over so quickly that few knew that it had taken

J. W. Colt's Malden, by Lissak -- Mar Rapture, had to be shot after the steeplechase. He was a lukewarm second choice and was going along fairly well up the backstretch the first time around when he suddenly stopped maldens: three years old and short and Rodrock leaped from the saddle. It was discovered later that Malden, in taking one of the jumps, had broken his leg so that his destruction was inevitable. Woden, another starter in this event, pulled up so lame that he was barely able to hobble home. Weir, who had the mount on Black Death, injured his leg and limped off to the paddock after he had weighed in.

The two negroes who were arrested the other day for stealing a dozen pairs of field glasses from the office of John G. Cavanagh were held in $2,000 bail for the Grand Jury in the Adams street police court, Brooklyn.

Kid McCoy's sister-in-law, Mrs. Rosalie Selby, is the owner of Pamela, the Hamburg filly who won the fifth race at 20 to 1. McCoy went to the ring early and found 50 to 1 against the filly. He bet $25 at this price, and then got on $50 more at 20. Pamela was purchased last spring at the sale of the late W. C. Whitney's horses, but although she started in number of races she never got near the money until yesterday. Pamela's success was a hard blow for those who played T Hitchcock, Jr.'s, Usury, a colt by Knight of the Thistle-Interest, who ran second. Little Notter, Jack McGinnis's apprentice, rode Pameia, and just as he was leaving the pad-dock McGinnis said to him:

efter the red board had been adjusted. Roseben's magnificent performance made many of the skeptics take off their hats. He gave twenty-nine pounds by the scale to Schulamite, twenty-two to Nannie Hodge, twenty-six to Jake Sanders, thirty to Marjoram, forty-seven to Ancestor, thirty-six many believed that the delay would kill Rose-ben's chances. But the big horse stood perfectly still and when it came to racing he showed a wonderful turn of speed. He has covered the distance in 25 3-5 seconds, breaka cracked hoof, and in order to protect his feet he ran in aluminum pads. Lyne had the mount instead of O'Neill, who had been premount instead of O'Neill, who had been previously engaged to ride Hodge, but the change of jockeys cut no figure. Frank Farrell and Dave Johnson had a tremendous wager between them on Roseben, Johnson going into the ring himself for the first time since he lost his $15,000 wager on the noted weight carrier the day Jocund beat him at the Bay. John Walters, the clubhouse commissioner, placed $10,000 on Roseben with George Wheelock J. Clark, the Lichtensteins, Joe Guthorn and the clubhouse also indulging in a plunge that made Roseben's closing price 7 to 5. Fred Johnson, M. Ray and Eddie Burke played Schulamite, with M. Manheimer and J. Hammel backing Marjoram, and Jake Sanders played by Joe Hayman and Sam Hildreth. The finish in the Speculation Stakes was too close for comfort. As Right Royal got there by a nose, the ring suffered a hard jolt as the Rapallo colt was supported by Joe Hayman, who bet $5,000, and by J. Hammel, the Lichtensteins, Wheelock, M. L. Hayman, John Fay, Joe Murphy and others. Judge Himes, to whom Right Royal gave eleven pounds, was played by his owner, C. R. Ellison, and by J. H. Beck. Eddie McDonald and Tom Costigan liked Uncle Urigh; Mark Riordan went to Ocean Tide, and Fred Johnson took Oro.

The Speculation Stakes, first run in 1886,

The Speculation Stakes, first run in 1888, has produced these winners: Markland, Phil Lee, Queen Elizabeth, Taviston, Kempland, Banquet, Equity, Raceland, Stonenell, Arapahoe, Harry Reed, Salvable, George Keene, Cambrian, Potente, The Regent, De Reszke (twice), and Daisy Green.

Confederate, the winner of the first race, ran for the first time in the colors of W. B. Jennings, who purchased him last week from Thomas. Thurnann. The latter took him from Kansas Price in a selling race at Saratoga after the latter had secured him in a similar way from Woodford Clay. He was finely handled by Hildebrand, who rode for the first time since he was suspended by the stewards for rough riding. J. Howard won $10,000 on Confederate, with Charley Quinn, a Western operator, picking up $6,000. The colt was also supported by many handicappers, who figured him to be pounds the best. The performance of Willie Shields's Hamburg filly Yalazal in this race was a shock to such players as Alex Shields, Frank Tyler. Wheelock, Consellor Lichtenstein, Frank Moore, E. R. Bradley, and others. Bellsnicker, who ran in the McCarren silks for the first time, was backed by H. Parr and Jakey Josephs. Eddie Burke had a good bet on Deviltree, with Joe Rose taking Arklitta. Jim Davy placed $1,500 on Confederate and $1,000 on Deviltree, both to win.

Secretary P. H. Treat of the New California Jockey Club, which will open the coming winter meeting at Oakland on November 11, announces that stakes will close on October 23 and that the two-year-old stakes to be run in 1906 will close on December 4. The chief event is the $10,000 Burns Handicap. No purse will be less than $400, while the added money for overnight events and special races will range from $500 to $1,000. Entry blanks can be secured at the local track from C. H. Pettingill and Robert. McGibbon.

There was one clubhouse commission of $5,000 on Calcorabatchee, the winner of the steeplechase, who opened at 5 to 1 and was played down to 7 to 2. Jee Guthorn also had $2,000 on his successful jumpe

POLO AT VAN CORTLANDT. Mawr Wins Junior Championship From Squadron A.

Rain did not cause a posiponement of the match for the junior championship of the Polo Association yesterday at Van Cortlandt Park, although the bad weather kept all but a couple of hundred onlookers away. The bare lines of side ropes were not inspiring. but the players put up a good game against the disadvantages of a soft and wet turf that killed all run of the ball. The Bryn Mawr second team won the match by 6% to 8% goals for Squadron A. It was the second time the Warren cup and the junior title have been won by a Pennsylvania team, the Country Club of Philadelphia winning the inaugural contest in 1900. Rocksway has won three and Lakewood one of the other four contests. The members' enclosure was as empty as the field and the tent was in demand as a shelter between periods. H. L. Herbert, chairman of the Polo Association, who got back on Saturday from a trip to the Dublin horse show, was an onlooker from the enclosure, with W. A. Hazard, the Polo Association secretary, and Foxhall P. Keene, the veteran and highest ranking player on the handicap list. Oliver W. Bird of Meadow-brook was referee, and the timekeepers were Dr. Souter and R. Barnfather. Mrs. R. E. Strawbridge, who came out in an automobile, applauded the success of her home

Brown had as mounts his four prize winner of the National Horse Show, the chestnut Koko Jim, the bay Little Joe, and the marcs Brown Minnie and Josephine, the last a bay. The four had speed in plenty, even in the sticky going, and the entire bunch of Bryn Mawr ponies were well up to their work. The Squadron A team had the entire troop stable to cull from and was at no disadvantage in this respect. The clipping pace the squadhowever, on the lumpy field. The line-up and positions were:

however, on the lumpy field. The line-up and positions were:

Bryn Mawr Second-Alex Brown, No. 1; H. W. Harrison, No. 2; R. E. Strawbridge, No. 3; George McFadden, back.

Squadron A-W. S. McGuire, No. 1; Louis Neilson, No. 2; J. H. Hunt, No. 3; R. G. D. Douglas, back.

The Squadron players did all the scoring in the first period, Douglas accounting for one and Neilson for two goals before the gong sounded. Both showed strength andgood direction in their hits, and the Squadron poines seemed to have all the speed in the races for the ball. By the end of the period the turf was all cut up and the ponies labored in the heavy going. Team work was at a premium in the next three periods, the Bryn Mawr men playing their positions with such generalship that the Squadron team made but one more goal.

In the second period Strawbridge and Harrison made a single and Brown three goals, while the Squadron lost a quarter goal through a safety and McFadden was penalized a half goal for a foul. The third period found the Bryn Mawr men on the defensive, for with a lead of 4½ to 2½ goals they resorted to cross hits and blocking tactics to save the legs of the ponies. The one count was a goal by Hunt for the Squadron after thirteen minutes of play. The fourth period was also slow in action, for the turf was now almost as hard to raise a gallop on as a plowed field, only Strawbridge and Brown making counts, which clinched the victory for the visitors. The summary:

NEW COLUMBIA RECORDS. Track Team Applies to Have Marks Ratifled by Council.

The Columbia track team yesterday pre pared a list of new track records, revised by the performances of the meets last spring, and they will be presented for ratification to the University Athletic Council at its next meeting. New records were made in the 100 yard run, the two miles, low hurdles and in the cross-country race. William R. Kna kal 'os science, ran 100 yards in the dual meet at Princeton in ten seconds flat, breaking the record of 10 1-5 seconds, formerly held by M. W. Long. Long, who is the world's record holder in the quarter mile, formerly held three sprint marks at Columbia. Knakal broke his hundred yard record this year and Leventritt made better figures in the furlong Long still holds the quarter mile record of the university.

In the low hurdles D. D. Muir, '06 science ing by one-fifth of a second the standard held jointly by W. E. De Salazar and H. C. Reynolds. Charles D. Macdonald, '06 colheld jointly by W. E. De Salazar and H. C. Reynolds. Charles D. Macdonald, '06 college, made the two new distance records. In the university championships he covered two miles in 10 minutes 10 seconds, breaking his own record by seven seconds. His cross-country record for the six miles or so around Travers Island is 34 minutes 15 4-5 seconds, made last fall when he finished sixth in the intercollegiate run. The records that will be presented as revised up to date are:

100 yard run, W. R. Knakal, '08 science, 10 seconds;

220 yard run, 21 4-5 seconds, L. L. Leventritt, '06 college, 400 yard run, 49 1-5 seconds, M. W. Long, '01 political science; 850 yard run, 2 minutes 2-5 second, college; 1,000 yard run, 2 minutes 22 4-5 seconds, O. M. Bishop, '03 science; one mile run, 4 minutes 353-5 seconds, C. B. Marshall, '02 law: two mile run, 10 minutes 10 seconds, C. D. Macdonald, '06 college; 100 yard high hurdles, 16 seconds, H. T. Harding, '93 medicine; 220 yard low hurdle, 25 3-5 seconds, D. D. Mulr, Jr., '06 science; one mile walk, 7 minutes 4 seconds, Lloyd Collis, '92 science; running broad jump, 23 feet 6's inches, R. S. Stangland, '04 science; running high tump, 5 feet 104 inches, Guy Richards, '87 college; pole vault, 11 feet 1 inch, O. B. Smith, '97 college; pole vault, 11 feet 1 inch, O. B. Smith, '97 college; pole vault, 11 feet 1 inch, O. B. Smith, '97 college; putting 16 pound shot, 41 feet 10 inches. T. B. Johnson, '03 law: throwing 16 pound hammer, 130 feet, G. Welles, '01 science:

AUTO RECORDS BROKEN. Oldfield Goes Five Miles in 4 Minutes

38 2-5 Seconds-Bernin Hurt. SYRACUSE, N. Y., Sept. 18.-Barney Oldfield, with his Green Dragon, broke the world's automobile record for five miles at the National Circuit races here to-day, his time being record was made by Oldfield at Buffalo, being 4 minutes 39 seconds. Dan Turgis broke a world's record, going an exhibition mile with a middle weight Rec car in 58 4-5 seconds. C. H. Curtis of Hammondsport broke the world's record mile with a 2 h. p. motor cycle, his time being 1 minute 3½ seconds. His time at the end of the second mile was 2 minutes 4 4-5 seconds, the previous record being 2 minutes 10 seconds.

M. G. Bernin in the fourth mile of the five mile chamionship, while going at the rate of a mile a minute, ran into the fence and tore off forty feet of railing. The flying timbers struck him in the head, cutting a bad gash above the eye. The machine was disabled, but Berwin was not seriously hurt.

Baseball Notes.

Willie Keeler says he is the best lefthanded sec-ond baseman in the business.

Collins is the best hitter on the Boston Ameri-ans, and his average is 28 points shy of the 300

Lee of the Toledos did some tail batting in a game last week. He made two singles, two doubles and a homer.

Mike Doulin is nearing the 200 mark in base hits. He has twenty-one more to make, and ought to get there with twenty three more games to play.

Charley Hickman has been batting at a .311 clip since he Joined the Washingtons. A bad start kept Hick from having a better full season average. Joe Tinker and Johnny Evers engaged in fisticuffs in an exhibition game in Hedford, Ind., the other day. Not the first scrap Tinker has had on the field. He and Wid Couroy mixed it up on the diamond once.

Jack Harper has probably pitched his last game for the Reds. He has gone home for the rest of the season, incapacitated by an abscess in the armpit. He is likely to figure in a trade that will land him with some other team next year.

One reason why collegians do not play a better

One reason why collegians do not play a better grade of baseball may be due to the howl against Speaking of the proposed post season series between the Browns and the Carlinals, Stanley Roblson says he is willing to give the players half of the net receipts. He suggests that the two teams divide this 50 per cent. 60 per cent. to the winner and 40 per cent. to the loser. winner and 40 per cent, to the loser.

Bill Hart, the old-time pitcher, tells of a game played by the Lincoin team against the Wichitas back in 1887. The Kansans won the first game 4 to 3, which so rankled in the breasts of the Nebraskans that they trimmed the Sunflower men the next day, 46 to 7, making 50 hits. "No man on our team had less than five hits," says Hart. "We made nineteen runs in one inning." The members of the Lincoin team at the time were: Swartzel, Dolan, Hart and Atkinson, pitchers; Kid Baldwin and Charile Hoover, cauchers: Beckley, first base: Dave Rowe, second base; Joe Herr, chort; Fred Lang, third base; Schaefer, Reeder and Hall, outfielders.

VICTORY FOR ONE, RAIN FOR THE lin. OTHER. Griffith's Men Slip Back Into the Second

Division, While Michiganders Beat Clevelands and Tie Them for Third Place-Even Break in Washington. Rain prevented an encounter between the New York Americans and Philadelphias yesterday, and whatever chance the former had of retaining fourth place for the day had of retaining fourth place for the day was shattered by Detroit's victory over Cleveland. The Michiganders jumped from the second division up to a tie with Cleveland for third place. The Chicagos made Philadelphia's pennant chances rosier by dropping a game to the Browns. The Bostons lost their first game in Washington, and walloped the Capitalists severely in the second. The results:
